

Professional Handling by Phil Silva at Ten Broeck Farm

Phil Silva brings more than 20 years of equine experience to every relationship. He provides excellent in-hand work to prepare your horse for breedshows and inspections. He is also a pro in the show ring resulting in top performance.

"We trust Phil to handle all of our champion horses, in and out of the ring. He does a great job! Phil is not only a super handler, but lots of fun. We enjoy working with him."

- Kathy Hickerson, Majestic Gaits Farm

Proper handling brings out the best in every horse

Phil Silva is available to work with your horse in-hand as well as give handling lessons so that you learn the proper techniques. Phil is also well acquainted with the show ring and explains the rules and requirements to help you on your path to success. And, he can also handle your horse personally for breedshows and inspections.

Phil has successfully handled our young horses at many breed shows. He is enthusiastic, professional and really enjoys working with the horses. We highly recommend Phil's handling services.
